The nominees were placed before the general membership at this meeting and accepted.

In 2018 Matthew Wasco, M.D. accepted the position of as Secretary Treasury replacing Cynthia Cookingham, M.D.

In 2018 Thomas Giordano, M.D. accepted the position as a Board Member; replacing Steve Smith, M.D.

3. Stephanie L. Skala, M.D. was awarded the M. R. Abell, M.D. outstanding AP Resident Award, and David M. Manthei, M.D. was awarded the John G. Batsakis, M.D./Ronald H. Nishiyama, M.D.

outstanding CP Resident Award. A certificate and honorarium of $1000.00 were granted to each awardee.

4. The French Lectureship was presented by John Hart M.D. Professor, University of Chicago, at the New Frontiers Meeting held in Ann Arbor September 2018. He currently is a member of the Executive Committee, Board of Directors of the United States and Canadian Academy of Pathology and is the current president of the Rodger Haggitt Gastrointestinal Pathology Society.

5. Financial position of the Society is very good.

6. We have approximately 105 dues paying members, our goal for 2019 is to increase this number by 20 members—especially from those who have completed their training program during the past 10 years. We continue to investigate electronic payment systems for dues—cost may be prohibitive.

7. Other business or questions.
